

Gemini.

Blood Red Boots

I swear I think the stars aligned.
When you walked through the bar.I'm turned to stone and I am terrified.
And wondering who you are.You make the conversation stop.
And all the girls want what you got.
I think my heart is beating...Tell me. Tell me. How you do it.
Tell me. Tell me. How you do itAutomatic. Hypnotize. You're magnetic. And Electrified.
Automatic. Hypnotize. You're magnetic. You're a Gemini.I can't tell if this is love or lust.
You erased my mind.You torture me, but I can't get enough.
I'm shackled to my fate.You make the conversation stop.
And all the girls want what you got.
I think my heart is beating...With every breath I know, you know.
That any girl would slit your throat.
And drain your sex appeal.Tell me. Tell me. How you do it.
Tell me. Tell me. How you do it.
