When Love Comes Close

Masterplan

She put a spell on him
She had his heart in her hand
And when she squeezed a little bit too hard
She tore the boy to piecesLooked into the mirror I was hypnotized
There's was a different man staring back into my eyes
Went to the doctor but he could not see
Only the love of a woman would be medicine for meI went for miles in the pouring rain
Losing her wasn't part of the game
So I took the time to look around and see
'Cause there had to be a future that was meant for me, yeahLove can take you to the sky
Love may leave you in a haze to die
And you will always know it's true
When love comes close to youI gave away everything I had Spent all my money, I got thirsty and mad
No life for losers when the winner steals the price
In the heartbeat of the city, I was forced to roll the diceLove may blind you with it's cry
Love can haunt you till the day you die
Be yourself and don't pretend
Broken hearts can always mendOh, love can take you to the sky
Love may leave you in a haze to die
And you will always know it's true
When love comes close to you
