

Take Me Back to the Prairie

Marty Robbins

Take me out of this prison
Back to the clear blue sky
Take me back to the part where this cowboy's heart
Want's to live till I dieTake me back to the prairie
Away from these cold prison bars
By a campfire's gleam let me lie there and dream
Under a blanket of starsWhere each mountain top wears a halo
Of fleecy white clouds overhead
Where symphonys ring from birds on the wing
And the grass is like a soft feather bedTake me back to the prairie
Back to the land I love best
So that when I am gone I'll be where I belong
There in my haven of rest
