

Floyd

Lynyrd Skynyrd

Floyd was a trapper way back in the holler
Made moonshine so he could make a dollar
Six feet tall, dressed in overalls
And wore himself a long gray beard
People say Floyd came to town one day
But two law dogs got in his way
Floyd never hurt no one in his life
But they never came back this way
No, they never came back this way
And the people say
Aye, aye, aye, hear the hound dogs moan
Aye, aye, aye, now that Floyd's long gone
And the creeper was a-creepin'
And the souls they were hollerin'
Singin' aye, aye, aye, aye, aye
The G-men came out to track him down
But the swamp was too deep, even one of them drowned
They sent in the hell hounds but they turned around
Singin' how, how, how, how, how
How, how, how, how, how
And the people say
Aye, aye, aye, hear the hound dogs moan
Aye, aye, aye, now that Floyd's long gone
And the creeper was a-creepin'
And the souls they were hollerin'
Singin' aye, aye, aye, aye, aye
Yeah, the souls they were cryin'
Yeah, the creeper he was creepin'
Sheriff Boudreaux came to talk to his neighbors
All they could say is he was eaten by a gator
The legend lives on but Floyd, he's at home
Singin, how, how, how, how, how
How, how, how, how, how
And the soul said
And the creeper was creepin'
And the souls they were cryin'
Singin' aye, aye, aye, aye, aye
Aye, aye, aye, hear the hound dogs moan
Aye, aye, aye, now that Floyd's long gone
Aye, aye, aye, now that Floyd's long gone
There's a full moon now
The moon was shinin' bright
Singin' aye, aye, aye, aye, aye

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>