

Shades

The Chameleons

Hey, we really should be leaving

One day I will move the stone
One day I will move the stone
One day I will take you home
One day I will take you home

If you can pull the shades of grey together
Pull the shades of grey together
If you want to live forever
Let's pull the shades of grey together
Pull the shades of grey together, yeah
Get it together

If you want to live forever
Let's pull the shades of grey together
Pull the shades of grey together
Pull the shades of grey together

Do you know what I mean? Do you?
Do you know what I mean? Do you?
Do you know what I mean? Do you?
Do you know what I mean? Do you?

One day soon Iâ€™™ll move the stone
One day soon I'll take you home

If you can pull the shades of grey together
Pull the shades of grey together
If you want to live forever
Let's pull the shades of grey together
Pull the shades of grey together
Together
Get it together
Get it together
Together
Together
Together
Together

Together
