Thinking Of You

Justin Guarini

Look in my eyes
I know you see the love inside me
I know that you're scared
But I'm not gonna hurt you babyJust give me your hand
I'll show you love is never ending
We will fly away
And never look back again, noI wanna take you away
I got a little house where we can stay
I wanna make you my own
If you don't try you'll never know'Cause I could be the love of your life
Until you make up your mind
I'm gonna spend my time
Thinking of you, yeahYou don't have to hide baby
'Cause I will be your protector
Let's take a ride
On a trip that's gonna last foreverI'm positive this will work
You're smiling 'cause you know
You feel it too
Baby, all I ever wanted was youI wanna take you away
I got a little house where we can stay
I wanna to make you my own
If you don't try you'll never know'Cause I could be the love of your life
Until you make up your mind
I'm gonna spend my time
Thinking of you, yeahLet's take a chance baby
What have we got to lose?
I will show the world
That I'm the best for youYou will see my love will take you
Where you've never been
All you gotta do is say yes to make me your man
Your manI wanna take you away
I got a little house where we can stay
I wanna make you my own
If you don't try you'll never know'Cause I could be the love of your life
Until you make-up your mind
I'm gonna spend my time
Thinking of you, yeahI wanna take you
I wanna take you away
I wanna make you my own

I wanna make you my own
I wanna make you my ownI wanna take you
I wanna take you away
I wanna make you my own
I wanna make you my ownTake you away baby
I wanna take you
I wanna take you away
I wanna make you my own
I wanna make you my own
