Nothing I Can Save

Neverending White Lights

There?s a perfect body in a perfect place
When it falls to pieces its nothing I can save
I was a witness, to your secrets
But something happens, something happened
I know I know you can
I know I know you can keep me here in darkness
Keep me here in darkness now
Another reason for me to forget your words
Baby it?s not me who hurts but that was what you said
Tell your secrets
Can you tell your secrets?

I know I know you can
I know I know you can keep me here in darkness
God knows where my heart lives now
You walk a straight line
You get it right on your first try
You get hurt but you don?t cry
I know I know you can
I know I know you can keep me here in darkness
God knows where my heart lives now
I know I know you can
I know I know you can keep me here in darkness
Keep me here in darkness
