Unconscious Liars

Pascale Picard

Let?s rent a car and get out of this place
Make them shut up, I really need a few minutes grace
They?ll say we?re stupid if we leave
And they?ll call us chicken shit if we stay
What would you be ready to die for?This advice could be useful
But promise me the final decision will be yours
They will be scared if we try
And disappointed if we give up
Can you make sense of it all?And if they try to do anything to smash our hopes
Dare them to steal that dream from the source
They might not even know they are bullshitting us
So forgive the unconscious liarsThe ones that love you want to get involved when fate is on your side
And obviously when you get down they suddenly realize
They are really in a big rush this month
They?ll call you later but don?t you know they won?tThey always say they know exactly how it feels
They?ll probably tell you they fought something similar
When they swear they understand,
It doesn?t mean that they won?t try to stop you from getting better
And if they try to do anything to smash our hopes
Dare them to steal that dream from the source
They might not even know they are bullshitting us
So forgive the unconscious liarsLet?s rent this fucking car, I want to get out of here now
We don?t need any directions, let?s just say we?re going far
I know I am telling you what to do
I might be a kind of liar too
But we?ll always find our way back home
We?ll always find our way back home?They always say they know exactly how it feels
They?ll probably tell you they fought something similar
When they swear they understand,
It doesn?t mean that they won?t try to stop you from getting better
And if they try to do anything to smash our hopes
Dare them to steal that dream from the source
They might not even know they are bullshitting us
So forgive the unconscious liars
