Revelation

Spock's Beard

Got a locket on a string
She caresses as she brings me jasmine tea
Breaking out of who she was
She confesses that she's not sure how
And I cannot explain now
But the rain keeps coming downIt's the rain of revelation
Just keeps comin' down
Just keeps comin' down
It's the pain of pure elation
Just keeps comin' down
Just keeps comin' downShe's a shifted paradigm
She's my partner in my crime against the clock
If she's the wind then I'm a fan
Blowing through and changing who I am
And I don't understand how
But she's blowing through me nowIt's the rain of revelation
Just keeps comin' down
Just keeps comin' down
It's the pain of pure elation
I can't live without
I can't live without
I can't live withI had somethin' black and somethin' blue
But I never heard a thing that's true
And I always thought there's nothing new under the sunI cannot explain now
But the rain keeps coming downIt's the rain of revelation
Just keeps comin' down
Just keeps comin' down, down
It's the pain of pure elation
I can't live without
I can't live withoutIt's through now
It's through nowIt's through now
I've gone underground
