Little Angel

Ana Johnsson

Hear a calling from afar
A gentle voice brings words unspoken
Little angel learned to fly
But she fell down, her wings were brokenEvery day she dies inside
Can't close her eyes and shout it out
Little angel, hear her cry
She's calling you, her heart is brokenIs it you? Is it you?
YouNever let the fire burn out
The spark of hope is all she's got
Little angel try to fly
But she fell down, her wings were broken
