

Dive

Yates

Blue sky, I wanna follow you.
Meanwhile, I'll leave it up to
Walking myself out.
Maybe we can all jump in the water together
Blue sky, I wanna follow you. I've done it all, became apparent
Suddenly, suddenly
I've done it all, became apparent
Suddenly, suddenly You are the magic, they all know it
All the stars and moon-like whisper
You are the pleasure that's got us going
The whole night long, echoes in the mornin'.
You are the magic, they all know it
All the stars and moon-like whisper
You are the pleasure that's got us going
The whole night long, echoes in the mornin'. I spy with my little eye,
My prize and I don't know why
I've done it all, became apparent
Suddenly, suddenly
I've done it all, became apparent
Suddenly, suddenly You are the magic, they all know it
All the stars and moon-like whisper
You are the pleasure that's got us going
The whole night long, echoes in the mornin'. You are the magic, they all know it
All the stars and moon-like whisper
You are the pleasure that's got us going
The whole night long, echoes in the mornin'.
All came up with a perfect plan,
And we all fall down and go hand in hand.
And we all came up with a way to pretend,
That had so much because it came and it went. Ohhh, ohhh haaa You are the magic, they all know it
All the stars and moon-like whisper
You are the pleasure that's got us going
The whole night long, echoes in the mornin'. You are the magic, they all know it
All the stars and moon-like whisper
You are the pleasure that's got us going
The whole night long, echoes in the mornin'.
