Different Kind Of Love

Brendan James

riving in a trance through your lost and lonely town
Something in the air that could blow your whole house down
Something like a tragedy
Something that you think you needTurning on a dime you pull into your local store
Aisles going by and you forget what you're looking for Maybe it's a pot of gold
Maybe you're too lost to knowMaybe what you need is a different kind of love
One that you have never seen
Maybe all you are is a part of a star on a long journeyMaybe what you need is a better kind of love
One that you could only dream
Maybe it will take all the sorrow away
And let you feel freeNothing like a storm in your heart to wake you up
Someone by your side and you know they're not enough
Maybe you should try and stay
Maybe you should walk awayMaybe what you need is a different kind of love
One that you have never seen
Maybe all you are is a part of a star on a long journeyMaybe what you need is a better kind of love
One that you could only dream
Maybe it will take all the sorrow away
And let you feel freeMaybe you wake up to a brighter sun
Voices in your head screaming now the change has come
With a different kind of loveMaybe what you need is a different kind of love
One that you have never seen
Maybe all you are is a part of a star on a long journeyMaybe what you need is a different kind of love
Maybe all you are is a part of a star on a long journey
Maybe what you need is a better kind of love
Maybe it will take all the sorrow away and let you feel free
