Stray

Swim Deep

Take me out today, but tell me the way
To tell my friends that I'll be home another day Take me all the way, throw my path astray
But make it so I don't grow another daySay I'm not leaving Say I'm just finding my way homeGive me inspiration for my lack of attention
And I will try make my time feel like tensionGive me a connection to this weird convention
And I will try to make my time something to mention Say I'm not leaving
Say I'm just finding my way home
Say what you mean
Come on stray outside, stray outside with me.
