

Shut the Damn Door

Lola Blanc

Carving initials on the desk
She's got a secret and she wants to confess
She likes to be the teacher's pet,
He brushed his hand against the back of her dress
We could run away,
She's saying to you, take a new last name,
She's saying to you, there's a midnight train,
Ooh oh oh I've been waiting, yeah she's saying
Don't you wanna touch me?
Turn the lights down low,
Shut the damn door
I know you think about me
They don't have to know
Shut the damn door
Two inches from my skin
When will you bring me in?
Don't you wanna hold me,
Cause we're all alone
Shut the damn door. He wants to see her after school,
A model student, breaking all of his rules
Gettin' detention, building up the tension
She may be young, but that girl ain't no damn fool
House and picket fence,
She's saying to you, summertime in France,
She's saying to you, come and take a chance,
Ooh oh oh
I've been waiting, yeah she's saying, Don't you wanna touch me?
Turn the lights down low,
Shut the damn door
I know you think about me
They don't have to know
Shut the damn door
Two inches from my skin
When will you bring me in?
Don't you wanna hold me?
Cause we're all alone
Shut the damn door,
Shut the damn door. Can't you hear my heart break
Every time that you say don't stand so close to me?
Oh baby,
Can't you hear my heart break

Every time that you say don't stand so close to me?
Oooh baby! Don't you wanna touch me?
Turn the lights down low,
Shut the damn door
I know you think about me
They don't have to know
Shut the damn door
Two inches from my skin
When will you bring me in?
Don't you wanna hold me?
~ÇÊ~Cause we're all alone
Shut the damn door.~ÇÊ•
