Can You Handle Me

Kane

There's something about your smile
There's something about the way you make me feel
Keeps me holding on
It brings me back, you know what game to playBack into your flame
Back towards the point of no return
To see your face againTo point it out, there's no one else apart from you
Keep drugging me with all the things you do
But you already know that I want you more
But you already know that I need youSo hear me, feel me
Oh, can you handle me, baby?
Oh, can you handle me, baby?Love me, heal me
But don't turn me down, no
Don't turn me downDon't you want me?
So it's not that I don't care, oh no
It's not that I don't give a damn, no, no, no I
And I don't think it's fair, heyI point it out, there's no one else apart from you
Keep drugging me with all the things you do
But you already know that I want you more
But you already know that I need youSo hear me, feel me
Oh, can you handle me, baby?
Oh, can you handle me, baby?Love me, heal me
But don't turn me down, no
Don't turn me downFor I sometimes trust you
Oh, can you handle me, baby?
Oh, can you handle me, baby?Love you always
Don't turn me down, no, don't turn me down
Don't you want me?
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, ohSo hear me, feel me
Oh, can you handle me, baby?
Oh, can you handle me, babyLove me, heal me
But don't turn me down, no
Ah, don't turn me downFor I sometimes trust you
Oh, can you handle me, baby?
Oh, can you handle me, baby?Love you always
Don't turn me down, baby
Don't turn me down, babyLove me, heal me
Don't turn me down, baby
Don't turn me downFor I sometimes trust you
Don't turn me down

Don't turn me down
Don't you want me?
