

Recess

Muse

Resuscitate in my sleep
I wake to see you're never here
And that losing yields another year
Facing hopes and fears And I wish I could believe there was more
Hopes suffocating and you kissed my life And the trains and plains are to blame
For tempting us to refrain
And to cut the cord and this every word
Of a truth absurd And I wish I could believe there was more
Hopes suffocating and you kissed my life
