

World Princess, Pt. 2

Grimes

I got a big dream, small world in between
Me and everything I can't do
Not really bad day, just okay
I kinda think you sucked the life right out of the blue I know most likely
How I used to be frail until he fell in your mind
Don't be unkind
You're so far behind me But I can see something more
Than the things you try to take
Now, you've made a mistake
Don't you cry It's mine
It's mine I saw the parade, big men must convey
So I'm thinkin' out on my feet
Back at the first page, shut the game, for you, it ain't
Oh, nothing else could be more complete I know most likely
How I used to be frail until he fell in your mind
Call me your kind
You're so far behind me But I can see something more
Than the things you try to take
Now, you've made a mistake
Don't you cry It's mine
It's mine Dim the light
In your head, in your heart, in your hiding emotion
Where the (Waters meet)
Dim the light
In the head, in the heart, in your hiding emotion
Where the (Waters meet) But I can see something more
Than the things you try to take
Now, you've made a mistake
Don't you cry It's mine
It's mine
It's mine
It's mine

Songwriters

CLAIRE ELISE BOUCHER Published by

Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>