Last Words

ICE NINE KILLS

Here goes the story of a kid we thought we knew
He hid a hate inside and had a state of mind
That put him in his grave
It began with his friends
They never noticed the despair in his eyes
From the pressure
His life was etched in stone
Before he made a choice of his ownAnd hes dedicated For everyday that hes made it on his own
In his fathers eyes hes a pair of dice
He wont be number one
He cant be number oneSo he tries to comply
With everything theyve ever asked
And his life is stitched with one-way tickets
To places he dont want to visit
He says Im never gonna be perfect Maybe I dont deserve his trust but Im doing the best I can Ive never dealt with such pressure
Feels like my whole lifes etched in stone Before Ive made a choice of my ownSo save your breath cause youll need it when you hang from a rope
Cause of death:
Obvious from your suicide note
The last words that filled the page:
if no one will listen than no one will miss me when Im gone Across town his dad falls asleep all alone
Never knowing he was never going to come home
The last thoughts that filled his head Ill tell him Im sorry Ill say I regret what I did Its your life
Ill live my own life instead

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/