

As Time Goes

JR JR

We were half dressed, careless
Wouldn't end well but I digress
Bare feet, concrete
Trippin' to the obvious chopped wheat (?)
As time goes,
As time will even be forgotten
Yeah we were arm wound, sun down
Tryin' to make sense of what we found
Out in the heat
Losing my blood in wild creek
As time goes,
As time will even be forgotten Sometimes I wish you'd never change
But I'm fine
No one can stay the same
(No one can stay the same)
(Stay the same)
Shirts wet, from sweat
Were we recognized by the government yet?
Wild eyed, east side
Wasn't anything that we wouldn't try
As time goes,
As time will even be forgotten
Gold plate, silver plate
Still didn't know a thing 'bout real estate
Young bride, French wife
Bringing souvenirs to fill her mind
As time goes,
As time will even be forgotten Sometimes I wished you'd never change
But I'm fine
No one can stay the same
(No one can stay the same)
(Stay the same)
Sometimes I wished you'd never change
But I'm fine
No one can stay the same
