

Head & Heart

Us, Ghosts

Come close,
Toward the light of home.
Those lost, Those cold.
For there's no such thing as home,
If you're thousands of miles away.
You don't see a thing, And you've lost your way.

These waves, may take you far.
Come back where you belong.
These words, I never said.
It's been the answer all along.

We can't have a start without an ending,
And you gave me a hell of a show.
But you became a bitch,
So just fucking go!
