

Things About to Change

The Rubens

hey there's lots of things to love about today
oh,
well I fell down some place I thought I'd never see all these faces staring down judging me scarily
I thought I'd never sleep when I did it was just like being awake can't escape
so I learned to make the most of now I got burned
now nothing gets me down I'm relieved
yeah the sweet relief
having nothing left to lose set me free
checkers on my shelves
everything else
make me feel good about my self I know
at time I buy my pride feet don't touch the ground I know
I know
So grab me by the ankles pull me back down
so I learned
