Unbreakable

Issa

Outside this room No one ever sees the whole me only stronger side But inside this heart, there is much to know About me words cannot describe If you look, if you really read between the lines You will see this is just a disguise a disguise Taking a look beyond these eyes It'll take you right around my heart I feel you should know, that I'm not unbreakable It's hard for me to show the other side Telling you but it isn't lie you You know that I'm not unbreakable I'm scared and frightened Who will give this soul asylum Protect me beyond these walls Can't stand this breaking and falling All of these mistakes I'm making Finally crystallize Now I look, I really read between the lines Now I see, I don't need to disguise No disguise Taking a look beyond these eyes It'll take you right around my heart I feel you should know, that I'm not unbreakable It's hard for me to show the other side Telling you that it isn't lie you Do you know that I'm not unbreakable Now, there's no where else to hide Nothing more to fight being alive, no That I'm not unbreakable It's hard for me to show the other side I'm telling that it isn't lie read me you'll know That I'm not unbreakable You read me you'll know That I'm not unbreakable You read me you'll know That I'm not unbreakable
