Waiting In The Wings

Shayne Ward

[Verse one]Tell me, what we, doing here anyway
It seems like, for too long, we've been playing these games
When I reach out to touch you, my hand starts to shake,
Cause it hurts to be this close, but still so far away
It's like I'm in the shadow of his mistakes
[Chorus]But I don't got a lifetime waiting for your heart to melt
Cause baby can't you see it's me that you're damaging
I'm opening my heart, and now I'm risking everything
So baby don't you leave me, waiting in the wings
[Verse two]I know, he hurt you, but baby, he ain't me
And I hope, someday, you'll find faith in me
I'm so desperate to touch you, I'd do anything
Can't accept, that my chances, are slowly vanishing
As the lights go on and I take the stage

I gotta find the words to say...
[Chorus]But I don't got a lifetime waiting for your heart to melt
Cause baby can't you see it's me that you're damaging
I'm opening my heart, and now I'm risking everything
So baby don't you leave me, waiting in the wings
Ohooo Ohooo
Ohooo Ohooo
[Chorus]But I don't got a lifetime waiting for your heart to melt
Cause baby can't you see it's me that you're damaging
I'm opening my heart, and now I'm risking everything
So baby don't you leave me, waiting in the wings
Ahhh ahhhh ahhhhhhhhhh
Ahhh ahhhh ahhhhhhhhhh
I'm opening my heart, and now I'm risking everything
So baby don't you leave me, waiting in the wings
