Jim and Andy

G.G. Anderson

A long long time ago there was a boyHe lived his life alone without any joy;
One day he found a bird with broken wingsOh
he called him Andy and they shared everything.
Days becoming shorter at the end of the yearThe long long winter came with sorrows and fears.
All the other guys were laughing 'bout himBut he had a dream that one day he'll win.
Jim and Andy - flying over the ocean to the land of emotionWhere all people live in harmony.
Jim and Andy - they are friends now foreverLivin' all time together
Jim and Andy.
Spring was coming near the bird had grown upAnd everyone was getting heatet and praying to GodWhen Jimmy took his place between the wings of the bird -
They flew away without a single word.
Jim and Andy - flying over the ocean to the land of emotionJim and Andy - they are friends now foreverLivin' all time together
Jim and Andy.
Oh
Jim and Andy - flying over the ocean to the land of emotion
