

Immeasurably More

Rend Collective

You are more
You are more
You are more than we can imagine More than all our sin, than all our shame
Stronger than the grave,
you are immeasurably more
I can't help but sing, cant help but praise.
My heart cannot contain, you are immeasurably more. There's nothing greater than your love, you are more than we can imagine.
There's nothing sweeter on this earth, you are more than we can imagine.
Our hearts respond to who you are, it is you, oh Lord, that we adore You are more
You are more
You are more than we can imagine (x2) No eye has seen, no ear has heard, what is coming, what is coming.
Never ending joy, never failing love.
You are coming, you are coming. (x2) There's nothing greater than your love, you are more than we can imagine,
There's nothing sweeter on this earth, you are more than we can imagine.
Our hearts respond to who you are, it is you, oh Lord, that we adore You are more
You are more
You are more than we can imagine (x2)
