

Ophidian

Subterrestrial

slither inside
can't go where I hide
so delicate and weak
you dare not collide
 the truth in me
 too dark to see so bitter the taste
now the poison runs free on the dream that you once rode now your visions all corrode you're the one that sent me would I betray?
when all hope is gone and the damage done I'm still alive
 the addiction's strong
 you can't erase me
won't go away of hatred and scorn of the heart that's been torn from a darkened womb
 in your dreams I was born
 the first and the last
 out of the past
 one final solution
now its coming down fast
