Stop

Pothead

I guess it's far too much
It's coming back on me:
My secret fun i had last night, you see
I guess i didn't win
It's only far too much
Like life just has to be, has to beWe step on over, we're taken 'back
We know that time is coming only 'til we spend
And say it's only just a matter
The overload is going up
Only just a matter to stop, to stopI thought, "ridiculous, to mop the road this way."
I'm cleaning 1-5, monkey suit, it's never me
I guess it's not that hip
I've got a job to do
Or i'd be homeless and crawl right back to youWe step on over,we're taken 'back
We know that time is coming only 'til we spend
And say it's only just a matter
Overload is going up
Only just a matter to stop, to stopIt's just a timeless wind
It's just like night today
When someone set me wandering on this place
I'm seeing everything, then going back to you
I'll see my home one more time before i'm throughWe step on over, we're taken 'back
We know that time is coming only 'til we spend
And say it's only just a matter
Overload is going up
Only just a matter to stop, to stop
