

Lucky Ones

Lights

It's you and I against the world
Hitting every green and living like
We were always told that we would
Not without the accidents, but I got a good feeling
Even there the points we broke at, we couldWho knows?
Doesn't matter anyway
Let's go
You and I will be okay'Cause after all this time
Still don't know where we're going
But look how far we've come
And as long as you're just as lost as I am
I'll hold you in the morning
Like we're the lucky onesI wish I could end the world
So I could feel it all over
All of our foolish notions, we do
Maybe we're invincible or we're sippin' on clover
All of it a wicked moment with youWho knows?
Doesn't matter anyway
Let's go
You and I will be okay'Cause after all this time
Still don't know where we're going
But look how far we've come
And as long as you're just as lost as I am
I'll hold you in the morning
Like we're the lucky onesOh, oh
Oh, ohHey, we made it this far
I'm here undirected
No one knows where we are
We're just guessing
Hey, we made it this far
I'm here undirected
No one knows where we are
We're just guessing'Cause after all this time
Still don't know where we're going
But look how far we've come
And as long as you're just as lost as I am
I'll hold you in the morning
Like we're the lucky onesOh
You're just as lost as I am (Hey, we made it this far)

I'll hold you in the morning (Oh)
Like we're the lucky ones, lucky ones Oh,
Hey, we made it this far
Like we're the lucky ones (Oh)
Like we're the lucky ones
