You Didn't Need

Rollins Band

You turned me in and you burned me out
You pulled me in and you locked me out
You ripped your feelings right across my back
You didn't see that I was bleeding
You turned away when I spoke to you
You didn't need to do that to me
You looked away when I looked right through you
When I touched youDid you feel it?
Did you ever feel anything at all?
Do you ever think of me?
Do you ever lie awake at night?
You've got your arms around someone else
I've got my arms wrapped around myself
I try to tell myselfI'm not down
I can't deny it
I didn't want it but I got it anyway
I didn't want it and I couldn't get away
Even though it hurts inside
I miss you
I keep a lie alive
In my dreams I kiss youEverything I said to you
I wrack my brain trying to remember
I wreck my brain trying to dismember
I'm sorry I still feel this pain inside
It shows on my face like a scar
Some people are better left alone
Any part attached to you
It's something I can't hide
It hurts so much when you have nothing to say
It hurts so much to have to walk away
