The Pressure

Ryan Corn

You say that this feels wrong
That you maybe should be leaving
Now somewhere else I know Just might be what you're needing oh oh oh oh oh oh ohYou're second-guessing plans And you're questioning your feelings
But you wouldn't for so long
May not be quite what you're thinking
If we don't feel the pressure we're kidding ourselves
ain't it just like a heart to want something else
When you're feeling the pressure, you're feeling the doubt
I'm gonna love you while you work it out oh oh oh oh oh oh ohSo babe don't be surprised, no
When love seems a little colder Forever as around, yeah winter days will soon be over And , If we don't feel the pressure we're kidding ourselves
ain't it just like a heart to want something else
When you're feeling the pressure, you're feeling the doubt
I'm gonna love you while you work it out
I'm gonna love you while you work it out
Whoa, oh ohI don't believe that love just goes away, Oh no
I know you're weary but I'm wide-awake
Oh, so all of the day and night
I'll love you til it's right... til you stay
Will you stay?
If we don't feel the pressure we're kidding ourselves
ain't it just like a heart to want something else
When you're feeling the pressure, you're feeling the doubt, mmm
I'm gonna love you while you work it out
If we don't feel the pressure we're kidding ourselves
ain't it just like a heart to want something else
