Until Yesterday

Jc Chasez

(Yeah)
I found a letter on my dresser last night
I've got a baby on the way
It made me suspicious of another guy ?cause
You couldn?t tell me to my face
And So I ask to find out if I was right
That?s when your eyes filled up with rage
Nine months go by the baby?s not my blood type
Look at the mess you?ve made
You know I love you so much girl I would never hurt you
chorus If you play with fire then you?ll get burned
When will you learn now it?s your turn
Remember all the lies you sold me
Made me feel so sad and lonely
Now your fairytale?s unfolding
Nothing left to say ?cause I loved you all the way
Until yesterday (oooh), Oh until yesterday
Oh well, Damn, well can you help me understand
Why you would keep me while you?re sexing with another man?

Or was it just a one-night stand?
Or was it something far more planned than what we had ?cause?
You know I love you so much, I know your daddy taught you better
[chorus]You know I love you so much? ohhhh
Your daddy shoulda taught you better
(But) If you play with fire then you?ll get burned
When will you learn now it?s your turn
Remember all the lies you sold me
Made me feel so sad and lonely
Now your fairytale?s unfolding
Nothing left to say ?cause I loved you all the way Oh!
Until Yesterday
(Repet Chorus)
I loved you all the way ?til yesterday
Remember all the lies you sold me
Made me feel so sad and lonely
Now your fairytale?s unfolding
Nothing left to say, nothing left to say ?cause I loved you all the way

All the way until yesterday
