The Right One (feat. Rolando Grooscors)

Paul Hoyle

She was a smart girl going thru life she had a dream guy in back of her mind She was waiting for the right one, got confused about the right one.When she goes to parties she looks from the start, avoiding some people that dont look the part
She was waiting for the right one, got confused about the right one.She never opened her eyes to the beauty of whats inside and she never was aware that the right one could be right there!CHORUS Dont you know that love can hide in someones eyes cant you see that youve been looking in the wrong place for the right one all this time! (all this time)She takes the subway going back home She doesnt like people, she sits all alone.
She was waiting for the right one, got confused about the right one.She never wanted to know what would happen if she let go she never wanted to see that the right one was just me!(CHORUS)Bridge: And how do you know you found the one that would treat you right all you need to do is look around, and find the one thats looking at you!Youve been looking for the right one in the wrong place, at the wrong time, all along!
Looking for the right one (2x)
