

How Good Is Your Love

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Girl I have told you, I think that your special
Like rhythm and riddles, I explore you
Your hips turn to rivers, you see me swim in them
My waves will make you speak, in tongues like Spanish
You listen to Coldplay and Dr. Dre
Turn heads in sweatpants and throwback j's
Seems that your perfect in every way
But the only other question
Is just how goodHow good is your love, baby
How good is your love?
How good is your love, baby
How good is your love (in the meantime)I like that you listen and grab my attention
With lips made for kissing I aim right for them
Maybe you're land and I'm out to sea
And all I want to do is catch up to your beach
Fucks with the way that you say my name
Love how you roll up the perfect J
Seems like your better than all the rest
But the only thing I'm thinking
Is just how goodHow good is your love, baby
How good is your love?
How good is your love, baby
How good is your love (in the meantime)Meantime, I guess well get to know each other
Meantime, I guess we'll cross the bridge together
Meantime, Meantime, Meantime, Meantime, Meantime (How Good, How Good, How Good is your love)
(How Good, How Good, How Good is your love)How goods your love baby?
When the shit is going down
How goods your love baby?
When there's no one left around
How goodHow good is your love, baby

How good is your love?
How good is your love, baby
How good is your love (in the meantime)
