

A Woman Like You

Lee Brice

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Last night, outta the blue
Drifting off to the evening news
She said "Honey, what would you do
If you'd never met me"
I just laughed, said "I don't know,
But I could take a couple guesses though"
And then tried to dig real deep,
Said, "Darling honestly, I'd do a lot more offshore fishing
I'd probably eat more drive-thru chicken
Take a few strokes off my golf game
If I'd have never known your name
I'd still be driving that old green 'Nova
I probably never would have heard of yoga
Be a better football fan
But if I was a single man
Alone and out there on the loose
Well I'd be looking for a woman like you." I could tell that got her attention
So I said, "Oh yeah, I forgot to mention,
I wouldn't trade a single day
For a hundred years the other way."
She just smiled and rolled her eyes,
'Cause she's heard all of my lines
I said, "Come on on girl, seriously
If I hadn't been so lucky I'd be shooting pool in my bachelor pad
Playing bass in my cover band
Restocking up cold Bud Light
Play poker every Tuesday night, yeah
I'd have a dirt bike in the shed
And not one throw pillow on the bed
I'd keep my cash in a coffee can
But if I was a single man
Alone and out there on the loose

Well I'd be looking for a woman like you."She knows what a mess I'd be if I didn't have her here

But to be sure, I whispered in her ear
"You know I get sick deep-sea fishing
And you make the best fried chicken

I got a hopeless golf game
I love the sound of your name
I might miss that old green 'Nova
But I love watching you do yoga
I'd take a gold band on my hand
Over being a single man
'Cause honestly I don't know what I'd do
If I'd never met a woman like you."
