Stay Awhile

Soraya

As they were being said
I wished those words were dead
They grow and grow and grow in our heads
They linger, linger and haunt us days on endIt was all in a moment of anger
These daggers that I threw
They're still deeply embedded into you
I swear I fear there's nothing I can doStay awhile, young is the night
Give me a chance to set things right
Don't you throw away those years of love
Over one night when that love went wrongStay awhile, young is the night
Give me a chance to set things right
Don't you throw away those years of love
Over one night when that love went wrong
Over one night when that love went wrongI can see it in your eyes
In the way you look at me
Mistrust has now replaced intimacy
I feel you drifting, drifting far from meStay awhile, young is the night
Give me a chance to set things right
Don't you throw away those years of love
Over one night when that love went wrong
Over one night when that love went wrongAnd I swear I will fight this
I vow not to lose
I'll be damned if this destroys us
I'll be damned if I lose you, if I I lose youStay awhile, young is the night
Give me a chance to set things right
Don't you throw away those years of love
Over one night when that love went wrongStay awhile, young is the night
Give me a chance to set things right
Don't you throw away those years of love
Over one night when that love went wrong
Over one night when the love went wrongWhen that love went wrong
When the love went wrong
When the love went wrong
