

Stay Awhile

Soraya

As they were being said
I wished those words were dead
They grow and grow and grow in our heads
They linger, linger and haunt us days on end
It was all in a moment of anger
These daggers that I threw
They're still deeply embedded into you
I swear I fear there's nothing I can do
Stay awhile, young is the night
Give me a chance to set things right
Don't you throw away those years of love
Over one night when that love went wrong
Stay awhile, young is the night
Give me a chance to set things right
Don't you throw away those years of love
Over one night when that love went wrong
Over one night when that love went wrong
I can see it in your eyes
In the way you look at me
Mistrust has now replaced intimacy
I feel you drifting, drifting far from me
Stay awhile, young is the night
Give me a chance to set things right
Don't you throw away those years of love
Over one night when that love went wrong
Over one night when that love went wrong
And I swear I will fight this
I vow not to lose
I'll be damned if this destroys us
I'll be damned if I lose you, if I lose you
Stay awhile, young is the night
Give me a chance to set things right
Don't you throw away those years of love
Over one night when that love went wrong
Stay awhile, young is the night
Give me a chance to set things right
Don't you throw away those years of love
Over one night when that love went wrong
Over one night when the love went wrong
When that love went wrong
When the love went wrong
When the love went wrong
