

Glass To The Arson

Anberlin

Tonight my heart is cold
Lost in your lies, shallow replies And gravity prevails this time its over
And you think you're the one Calm me with your lies your simple tragedy
It's all I wish to hear tonight
And your all I wish to be
And this is how we all fall Tonight my heart is cold
Lost in your lies, shallow replies
Tonight I'll just let go
Lost in you eyes, transparent cries And innocence derailed
Savage the poison
Unhurried compass east Calm me with your lies your simple tragedy
It's all I wish to hear tonight
And your all I wish to be
And this is how we all fall Tonight my heart is cold
Lost in your lies, shallow replies
Tonight I'll just let go
Lost in you eyes, transparent cries And we are, we are, we are the arsons
Who start all of your fires And we are the arsons
Who start all of your fires, burning
Burning your city down Tonight my heart is cold
Lost in your lies, shallow replies
Tonight I'll just let go
Lost in you eyes, transparent cries
