

Virginia Moon

Foo Fighters

Dearest constellation, heaven's surrounding you
Stay there, soft and blue Virginia moon, I'll wait for you tonight
Sweetest invitation, breaking the day in two
Feeling like I do, Virginia moon, I'll wait for you tonight
And now our shades become shadows in your light
In the morning when we're through
And tomorrow rescues you I will say goodnight
Secret fascination, whisper a quiet tune
Hear me calling you, Virginia moon, I'll wait for you tonight
And now our shades become shadows in your light
In the morning when we're through
And tomorrow rescues you I will say goodnight
Virginia moon, I'll wait for you tonight
And now our shades become shadows in your light
In the morning when we're through
And tomorrow rescues you I will say goodnight
I will say goodnight, I will say goodnight
