

Sisters

Divididos

Through the course of an embrace
Our sisters felt a striking hand
Their fear was raised by the light of day
Their quiet rage sleeps with them tonight. And they say... We have a reason to ban our heart
We have a reason to change our mind. Sister midnight, sister moon
Like me so much don't think I'll see them soon. Through the course of an embrace
Our sisters felt a striking hand
Their fear was raised by the light of day
Their quiet rage sleeps with them tonight. And they say... We have a reason to ban our heart
We have a reason to change our mind. Sister midnight, sister moon
Like me so much don't think I'll see them soon.
