Dead of Night

Sinnergod

I heard the whisper
Come and follow me
I'll take you to the places only we can see
Then I'll show you no one can die
Just take your hand in my hand, we will bleed the sky, Bleed the sky
Don't let go!Now don't you fear
We're always there
We'll show you things in life that cannot be prepared
We're binded by blood, each and every sore
And hand in hand the underworld for ever more, for ever more
Don't let go!We are the underworld
We are nightmares untold
We are the dead of night, a drip of blood, a story told
