Lost And Found

Kasey Chambers

If I could learn how to fly
My feet would never touch the ground
I'd never have to say goodbye
I wouldn't have to make a sound
I could throw away this heart
Leave it in the lost and found
If I could fly high
I'd never come downIf I could sail across the sea
I would head towards the sun
I would never have to be Anything to anyone
I could chase your memory
And then I'd never have to run
If I could sail away
I'd never come homeBut I am still here
There's nowhere else to go
Yeah, I am still here
There's no one else to hold
And I can't fly, not that strong
Yeah, I am still here
And you're still goneIf I could fall into your arms
An' promise never to let go
Would you keep me safe from harm?
And take me everywhere you go
We could throw away the past
Then you'd never have to know
If I could hold your heart
I'd never let goBut I am still here
There's nowhere else to go
And I am still here
There's no one else to hold
And I can't fly, not that strong
Yeah, I am still here
And you're still gone
As I am still here
And you're still gone

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/