Serious

Jasmine Villegas

He says we've been hanging out for a while
And wants me to be his girlfriend now
I think that we need to slow it down, but He's not trying to hear those words from my mouth
He remembers our first date
Where he took me and what we both ate
He gets mad cause sometimes I forget
Can't remember the place that we met
He wants to be serious
I'm too young to be serious
I'm not ready for love, love, love
I don't wanna be serious
We're not ready for serious
I'm not ready for love
Ready for love, ready for love
With you right now, with you right now
With you right now, with you right now
He always tells me that he's in love
But my response is never enough
He says that I'm so detached
I just think it's my reaction
To move away, give us space
Doesn't mean I don't like you
But I like to move at my own peace
I don't wanna rush
He wants to be serious
I'm too young to be serious

I'm not ready for love, love, love
I don't wanna be serious
We're not ready for serious
I'm not ready for love
Ready for love, ready for love
With you right now, with you right now
With you right now, with you right now
I'm way too young to be Thinking of love, love, love
Let's wait a while, baby
Let's wait a while

What are we rushing for?
Let's take our time
I can't give you more than this
He wants to be serious
I'm too young to be serious
I'm not ready for love, love, love
I don't wanna be serious
We're not ready for serious
I'm not ready for love
Ready for love, ready for love
With you right now, with you right now
With you right now, with you right now
Serious, serious
Love, love, ready for love
With you right now, serious
With you right now, with you right now
With you right now

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/