One Of Those Days

Duran Duran

One, two, three, four
One, two, three, fourSuddenly it all looks so familiar
Gone and wrecked it like I always do
Don't you know it, life is out to kill 'ya
But you still go gettin' on with itSeen better times than right now
But I'm not runnin' away
No nothing's gonna bring me downIt's just been one of those days
I'm not the only oneThey can drag me to the gates of hell now
There's nothin' left but I'm still hangin' in
Not for me, ain't no final showdown
I'm too shattered to do anythingSeen better times than right now
But I'm not runnin' away
'Cause nothing's gonna bring me downIt's just been one of those days
I'm not the only, one feelin' this way
And I'm not sorryI'm not the only one feelin' this way
And I'm not sorry
Not runnin' away
I'm not the only one feelin' this way
And I'm not sorry
I hear you say
No I'm not sorry
