

Misery Loves Company

Mike Ness

I used to roam all night long
I lurked the streets late at night
I ain't never comin' home
    But loneliness
    Is part of the game
And misery loves companyI used to think that I was a king
    Fancy cars, fancy clothes and diamond rings
    Yeah but happiness is a funny thing
And misery just loves companyBridgeDon't even try to understand
    What goes on inside this man
    As a boy I used to dream
    'cause' sometimes life ain't what it seems
