

Rock America

Danger Danger

Hey have you heard the news

People on the hill changin' all the rules

The battle's just begun, stand up and fightDon't be afraid to say what's on your mind, it's OK

Be who you wanna be cause it's your lifeWe're not the chosen ones but we've got strength in numbers

Get up and make some noise, let 'em here your thunderChorus:

Out on the backstreets, I hear a heartbeat

We're gonna rock America

Standin' together forever, now and forever,

We're gonna rock America

They try to put us down

Say we're no good 'cause our music's loud

I guess they just don't forget when they were youngWhen there was just one king

Elvis was his name and he sure could swing

The Beach Boys had 'em singin' "Fun, Fun, Fun" They just deny the past and try to plan the future

Don't take it lyin' down, you don't want that, do ya?(Chorus)

We're not the chosen ones but we've got strength in numbers

Get up and make some noise, let 'em here your thunder(Chorus)Rock On!
