

Bigger Side

Anouk

It's good to see you after all this time
And it's good to know that you are doing fine
But I can't help but notice in a bar on Friday night
That there is something you should tell me
But your driver waits outside
You're moving on, you're going to a bigger world
You're moving on, you're ready for the universe
It's meaningless to me, 'cause you're not here to see
The bigger side of me
I swear I saw a tear rolling down your face
But there's a lot of smoke in bars these days
All I notice is the light that shines upon you from aside
I'm getting jealous of the coffee in the cup you hold so tight
You're moving on, you're going to a bigger world
You're moving on, you're ready for the universe
It's meaningless to me, 'cause you're not here to see
The bigger side of me
You're moving on to God knows where
Just send me a postcard when you're there
Will I remember? What will it say?
The weather is nice today
You're moving on, you're going to a bigger world
You're moving on, you're ready for the universe
It's meaningless to me, 'cause you're not here
You're going to a bigger world
You're moving on, you're ready for the universe
It's meaningless to me, 'cause you're not here to see
The bigger side of me
The bigger side of me
