

Frozen Heart (Remastered)

Acid Death

I wake up and I look at my face-can't remember
I can't remember where I've been last night
With whom I've, what I've done can't remember what really happened
Although I push my mind so hard
And my thoughts trail off to the frozen garden in my heart
Strange eyes
penetrate me
Who am I to see the difference
I've been demolished, I've been crushed down
I stood up angry and I built a wall
No reason there for me to flee
I don't believe your attitude or anyone's
You make me a stranger to-to human contact
Never say I run away
I'm just a man who understands that
That losing a piece of reality
Gains a piece of oneself
Behind this wall I can stand alone
In the frozen garden of my heart
I see no truth not even lies
There is only void just about everywhere
So I don't care with whom I've been
And what I've done-the only way to stand
And the wind is cold but at least is mine
So I sleep in the Frozen Garden in my heart
