In The Morning Light

The Left Banke

Open up my eyes
Say hello to the sunlight
It's a sunshine day
And it's got to be right

She's got me feelin' so fine
She's got a hold of my mind
She is the morning sunshine in my life
And I feel so fine

(Do you see my love through the light in the trees?)

When she opens so tight
She's got me feeling so right
She is the morning sunlight, in the night
And I feel so right!

In the morning light, as it burns in the sky
Sunday morning light, and it shines in my eyes

She's got me feelin' so fine
She's got a hold of my mind
She is the morning sunlight in my life
And I feel so fine

In the morning light, as it burns in the sky
Sunday morning light, and it shines in my eyes
Open up my eyes, say hello...(fade)
