Let There Be Morning

The Perishers

Now the end is drawing near
I cant believe its finally here
Take some time to pray for me
For what will beLet the sun rise
Let the birds sing
Let there be light
Let there be morningI dont know how
I made it till now
Let there be light
Let there be morning
Let there be morningHello future, goodbye past
Now each breath can be my last
Will I see another dawn?
Will I be reborn?Let the sun rise
Let the birds sing
Let there be light
Let there be morningI dont know how
I made it till now
Let there be light
Let there be morningLet the sun rise
Let the birds sing
Let there be light
Let there be morningI dont know how
I made it till now
Let there be light
Let there be morningLet there be light
Let there be morning
Let there be light
Let there be morning
