

Wobbly

Ezra Furman

I've been feeling wobbly lately
I've been feeling wobbly, so wobbly Feeling like they lost me, can't find me and they're always one step behind me But they'll never catch me, won't have me cos no one can grab me, even me Cos i've been feeling wobbly, real wobbly too wobblyGenders my friends, I've just been changing genders fluidly Plus they'll never pin me down in the pages like a bug or bumblebee Never classify me,don't try The soul is always rising, uprising and i'm feeling wobbly so wobbly I've been feeling wobbly ohOh but sometimes, sometimes i wobble down into a deep dark hole at the bottom of the ocean floor They all, they all just seem so fixed everything seems so straight
But i don't wanna stay down here i wanna be freeWobbly so wobbly
I've been feeling wobbly real wobbly I'm just glad they left me alone, because now I can find the truth of me
    And if you think you love me take warning, don't get too attached to just one me because I've been feeling wobbly so wobbly i've been feeling wobbly
